High Stakes: Women and peacebuilding in an illiberal world

Judith Large, Senior Research Fellow at the Conflict Analysis Research Centre (CARC), University of Kent, Canterbury, with twenty-five years international experience on war to peace transitions and issues of human rights.

Date: March 8 2017 Place: FML014 Time: 2-4 pm

Marking International Women's Day 2017, this session will examine global trends of backlash against women's rights; and the acute challenges facing UN operations and institutional legitimacy regarding the Women, Peace and Security agenda. How can we better understand and navigate these conditions?

All welcome.
