

3rd July, Programme

Art exhibition: “Les peuples figurants / History’s extras” by Steph Goodger
Cornerstone Gallery on the Mezzanine and Balcony levels

9:30-10.15 am Arrival and registration - Cornerstone Foyer. Coffee/tea served in Cornerstone mezzanine

10:15-10:30 am Welcome from the Director of the Archbishop Desmond Tutu Centre for War and Peace Studies - Cornerstone 001

10:30am First set of panels

1) Environment, land and conflict - CAP 004

Dáire McGill. Reducing Structural Violence in Post-Conflict Societies: Approaches to Land and Rural Reform in Montes de María, Colombia

Hitika Dhingra, Sargun Kaur Sachdeva. Need to Restore Peace by Increasing Awareness regarding Sustainability and Green Energy in Societies – A Major Environmental Challenge

Stephen McLoughlin, Pedram Rashidi. Climate change and mass atrocity prevention

Chair: Samantha Carney

2) Memory and conflict - CAP 009

Donna Halliday, Neil Ferguson. Romanticised, Regurgitated, and Reconstructed Memory: Narratives of Post-Conflict Youth in Northern Ireland

Susan Forde. Cartographies of transformation: Mapping social movement in post-conflict space

Eric Lepp. What about ‘getting on with it’ in post-peace agreement Belfast?

Chair: Terry Phillips

3) Power vs inclusion in peacebuilding – CAP207

Joanna L D Wilson. Imperialism by another name? Questioning the Legal and Moral Prerogative of the United Nations to Establish International Territorial Administrations

Medinat Abdulazeez. Violated Identities and Elusive Peace: Stigmatization and Struggle for Reintegration Among Victims of Boko Haram’s Insurgency in North Eastern Nigeria

Chair: Dimitrios Anagnostakis

12:00 Lunch - COR Great Hall

12:45pm Performance - Cornerstone 001 (Congregate outside)

A Call to Arms

A performative response to The Mother's Day Proclamation - Julia Ward Howe (1870)
by Sarah Black and Esther Wilson.

2.15pm Second set of panels

4) Media and Representation in peace and conflict - CAP 004

Nancy Brian Mbaya. News media representation of the abduction of 276 Chibok school girls in Borno State by Boko Haram

Catalina Montoya. The role of the media system in Post-Conflict Colombia

Adriana Rudling. I'm Not that Chained-Up Little Person". Four Paragons of Victimhood in Transitional Justice Discourse

Sajib Bala. Depicting Local Factions over Peacebuilding: A Case Study of the Peace Accord Implementation in the Chittagong Hill Tracts of Bangladesh.

Chair: Kate Mattocks

5) Culture, peace and justice – CAP 009

Samantha Carney. Faith, relationships and peacebuilding

Rachel Julian. Culture and Conflict in Myanmar: the complexity of peacebuilding interventions

Eric Awich Ochen. Beyond Visible Peace: Young People and Post-conflict Integration in Northern Uganda

Chair: Susan Forde

3.45 Coffee and tea - COR Mezzanine

4:15- Keynote address - Cornerstone 001

Professor Patricia Lundy "Fieldwork Under Fire": Doing Critical Research, Challenges, Dilemmas and Impact"

6pm Conference close followed by Dinner Gala (pre-booking required) - COR Grace Room